FRANCIS CESAR B. BRINGAS, CESO V
Regional Director
DepEd Regional Office XIII
J. P. Rosales Ave., Butuan City

Dear Dir. Bringas:

Republic Act 10912 or the “Continuing Professional Development Act of 2016” was enacted to promote and upgrade the practice of professions in the country and institute measures that will continuously improve the competence of the professionals in accordance with the international standards of practice, thereby ensuring their contribution in uplifting the general welfare, economic growth and development of the nation.

The Professional Regulation Commission being the implementing agency is taking its part in giving effect to the intent and purpose of CPD Act of 2016.

In the implementation of RA 10912 the Commission recognized that there is a need to address issues and concerns from the various stakeholders-the professionals in particular and the CPD Providers.

Thus, the PRC Regional Office XIII will hold a 2-day “Region-wide Capacity Enhancement Seminar on the Implementation of RA 10912 during Transitory Period” on November 21-22, 2019 at Hotel Oasis, Butuan City.

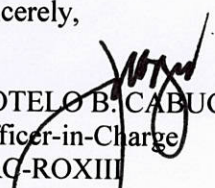

The activity aims to: 1) clarify the Implementing Rules & Regulations (IRR) and Guidelines of RA10912; 2) introduce the newly published Operational Guidelines of different PRBs and 3.) acquaint applicants in the standard requirements in applying as CPD provider or applying CPD programs and Self-Directed/Lifelong Learning.

This is a live-out seminar to be participated by representatives from the different groups of professionals in Caraga Region. The participants will be provided with free lunch, dinner, morning & afternoon snacks within two days. Learning kits are also provided at no cost.

With this, may we invite one (1) CPD focal person from your region office and 12 CPD focal persons from your 12 SDOs to participate on the said event.

Your full cooperation being our partner in the efficient implementation of the said Republic Act is much appreciated.

Sincerely,

ROTEO B. CABUGSA
Officer-in-Charge
PRC-ROXIII
