Department of Education-Caraga
Km. 3, Libertad St. Butuan City

Dear Regional Director Ledesma:

Greetings from the Civil Service Commission!

We are pleased to inform you that Mr. Jesus Catigan Insilada, Principal II, Malitbog National High School, Department of Education (DepEd) in Lambunao, Iloilo, and 2020 CSC Pagasa awardee, has been featured in the Philippine Civil Service Commission Facebook and Youtube pages' online segments of Honor Awards Program \(HAP\) Story and Lingkod Bayan Diaries \(LBD\). The online segments present the anthology of civil servants' stories that aim to inspire other kawani through short videos and interviews of public service exemplars.

Mr. Insilada was recognized in the annual Search for Outstanding Government Workers for his display of utmost respect for diversity in the establishment of a culture-based and inclusive education system, integrating the beliefs, practices, and spirituality of indigenous people (IP) in the school's lessons and teachings. He initiated various activities to mainstream awareness of Panay Bukidnon IP culture in the school through films, painting, and literature. His Pagdungaw Program addressed the problem of high dropout rate among IP students by involving parents and guardians in monitoring student attendance and performance.

Relative thereto, and as stated in the attached CSC Memorandum Circular No. 1, s. 2022 dated 17 January 2022 re: Search for Outstanding Government Workers, may we request your support by sharing his HAP story and LBD videos on your online bulletin boards and social media pages so that his contributions will be made known to more government employees and inspire them to follow suit.
