NDRRMC MEMORANDUM

No. 26, s. 2018

TO: ALL MEMBER DEPARTMENTS, BUREAUS AND AGENCIES

SUBJECT: NATIONAL DISASTER RESILIENCE MONTH (NDRM) 2018
THEME WRITING CONTEST

Executive Order No. 29 dated 28 June 2017 renamed the National Disaster Consciousness Month to National Disaster Resilience Month (NDRM), shifting its focus from disaster awareness building to disaster resilience. NDRM is observed throughout the country for the whole month of July of every year, through the conduct of activities relative to building resilience.

In line with this, the NDRRMC through the Office of Civil Defense, is conducting a theme writing contest for the observance of NDRM for 2018. The contest is open to all government employees holding permanent and casual positions.

All Departments, Bureaus and Agencies under the NDRRMC are hereby directed to campaign for entries among your respective employees. Attached is the contest mechanics.

For information and guidance.

Very truly yours,

For the Chairperson, NDRRMC:

USEC RICARDO B JALAD
NDRRMC Executive Director, and
OCD Administrator

NATIONAL DISASTER RESILIENCE MONTH 2018 THEME-WRITING CONTEST MECHANICS

INTRODUCTION: Executive Order No. 29 dated 28 June 2017, renamed the National Disaster Consciousness Month to National Disaster Resilience Month (NDRM), shifting its focus from disaster awareness building to disaster resilience. NDRM is observed throughout the country for the whole month of July of every year, through the conduct of activities relative to building resilience.

DURATION: Office of Civil Defense (OCD) will accept entries from March 19 to April 30, 2018.

PARTICIPANTS: The contest is OPEN to all Filipino government employees holding PERMANENT and CASUAL positions except officers and staff of OCD Public Affairs Office and members of the Screening Committee. Proof of employment in government may be required from participants whose entries made it to the shortlist.

THEME:

- The Theme must be in Filipino, not less than five words, and must not exceed fifteen words.
- All entries must be related to disaster resilience and must emphasize a nationwide approach.
- All entries must be original and unpublished.

SUBMISSION OF ENTRIES:

- Each participant is allowed to submit a maximum of ONE entry only.
- Participants must register online at the official website of Office of Civil Defense (ocd.gov.ph) and fill out the online registration form.
- OCD will only accept entries submitted online.
- OCD's online registration automatically limits the submission of entries per participant to one. Therefore, participants must make sure that they will only submit their final entry when registering and submitting. Moreover, a participant is not allowed to use multiple email addresses in sending their entries. Violators will be disqualified from the competition.
- OCD assumes no responsibility for any transmission delay or internet connection problem during the submission of entries.

DEADLINE: Submission of entries is until 30 April 2018, 5:00 PM. The submission portal will automatically close and reject any entries that will be submitted after the deadline.

SCREENING: All entries will be reviewed by the members of the Screening Committee composed of the following officers of the Office of Civil Defense. The Screening Committee will determine the twenty (20) entries that will be included in the final adjudication. Members of the Committee shall not be made aware of the names of the participants.

FINAL JUDGING: The twenty (20) entries shall be judged by a Board of Adjudicators composed of Members of NDRRMC Technical Working Group on Information, Education and Communications. Judges shall not be made aware of the names of the participants. Each submission will be given a corresponding number prior to presentation.

CRITERIA: Entries will be judged on the following criteria:

• Relevance of the theme	-	45%
• Originality	-	25%
• Structure	-	15%
• Style	-	15%
TOTAL		100%
