The Diploma in Teaching Arts Major in Dance (DTAD) is a collaborative project of PNU through the initiative of IPEHRDS with the National Commission for Culture and the Arts and the Department of Education which is mainly designed for non-specialist teachers of the SPA and Arts and Design Track (Dance) covering the needed skills and competencies of teachers in dance.

The roll-out of the said program will commence this June 2019. To facilitate the effective implementation of the program, the signatories will facilitate an orientation on August 1, 2019 (Thursday), 8:00 A.M. at PNU Mindanao Campus.

The primary aim of the activity is to provide the scholars the necessary understanding on the details of the implementation plan of the program. Specifically, to provide them the details on enrollment, class schedule, learning modalities in the course.

In view of this, we are requesting the qualified MAPEH teachers who applied for the Customized Diploma in Teaching Arts Major in Dance to attend the said orientation.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely,
