SPORTS HEROES DAY
A Celebration of Champions

PALARONG PAMBANSA 2019+

Before the opening of the Palarong Pambansa, a Sports Heroes Day will be celebrated among athletes who have made a name in their respective fields and student athletes or would-be champions.

On this day, student athletes will be meeting and interacting with their sports heroes and idols – the champions and living legends of our time. These sports champions will talk a bit about their lives as athletes and share theoretical and practical tips, skills, and experiences. The day, which aims to inspire future sports heroes among the youth, will have at least three aspects under two phases:

PHASE I – Champions will interact with athletes in their respective disciplines at the designated playing venues (e.g., Chess Grandmaster Eugene Torre meets student chess players).

Meet and Learn from the Champions (theory)

- Short life story - champion will share beginnings and struggles as an athlete
- Mentorship - champion will give tips and tricks of the trade, training, discipline, character building and the proper life-attitude
- Autograph signing by and Selfies with the champions - ~~life-~~ long souvenirs from the sports legends

Play With the Champions (practice)

- Conduct of sports clinic – champion will do hands-on training sessions with the student athletes (student athletes will get to play with or against their sports champion counterpart)
- Champion will give Practical Tips and Inspirational/Pep talk
- Giving of freebies - champion will hand out signed basketballs, boxing gloves, ping-pong rackets/balls, billiard cue sticks, chess sets, jerseys, shirts, caps, and others)

PHASE II – Champions will visit the billeting quarters or camp of the region where he/she came from or the region adopting him/her (e.g., Boxing Champion Senator Manny Pacquiao visits the camp of SOCKSARGEN).

At Home With the Champions

- Champion will visit the billeting quarters of the delegation of athletes from his or her region to show solidarity and give final support before the actual games.

Preparations and initial requirements:

1. Identify and invite Champions (per region and per discipline) who are products of the Palarong Pambansa and other sports legends and personalities.
2. Identify and invite sports companies and athletic shops to donate sports equipment and accessories to be given by Champions.
3. Invite national and regional sportswriters to do mini-writesops for aspiring student sports journalists.
4. Invite media to cover and broadcast event to generate interest in sports among the young, and in the Palarong Pambansa as a whole.

Under the guidance and supervision of the Palarong Pambansa Board and the Secretary-General, this one-day event will be a project of the Office of the Undersecretary for Administration (OUA) and the Youth Formation Division (YFD) under its strand. It is scheduled to be done a day before the actual start of the Palarong Pambansa and shall provide the proper motivation and perspective to the games.
