Bureau and Service Directors
Regional Directors
Schools Division Superintendents
Public Elementary and Secondary School Heads
All Others Concerned

1. The Department of Education (DepEd), through the Literacy Coordinating Council (LCC), announces the conduct of the 2022 National Literacy Awards (NLA), which will culminate in September, in conjunction with the celebration of the National Literacy Week and International Literacy Day.

2. The NLA aims to recognize best literacy practices carried out by local government units (LGU) and nongovernment organizations (NGO), which help alleviate poverty, provide livelihood opportunities, address welfare needs, promote freedom, and make education facilities accessible, among others. The specific objectives of the NLA are to

- a. contribute to the realization of the goal of universalizing literacy in the Philippines by creating public awareness of and interest in the programs, projects, and activities addressing this concern;
- b. sustain, expand, and institutionalize literacy efforts by motivating and recognizing individuals, institutions, and LGUs through awards and appropriate recognition;
- c. encourage the development and replication of innovative, creative, and indigenous literacy programs; and
- d. bestow honor on and recognition to outstanding government and NGOs for their dedication, commitment, and contribution to the eradication of illiteracy in their respective communities.

3. This year, NLA has the following categories:

- a. Outstanding Local Government Unit—an award given to LGUs that have developed and implemented literacy policies, programs, and projects that created positive and remarkable impacts on the quality of life of their constituents. The Outstanding LGU category is divided into four sub-categories;

- b. Outstanding Literacy Program—an award given to NGOs, private organizations, and private educational/academic institutions, that have developed and implemented literacy programs that created positive and remarkable impacts on learners and communities; and
 - c. Special Award of Excellence in Literacy—an award given to LGUs or NGOs that have been declared as NLA Hall of Fame Awardees and sustained their outstanding literacy programs for at least three years after receiving the award.
4. Nominations for outstanding local government unit and literacy program categories shall be submitted by LGUs and NGOs to their respective DepEd Regional Offices (ROs), through the Regional NLA Coordinator, from April 25 to May 11, 2022. On the other hand, the nominees for the Special Award of Excellence in Literacy Category shall be identified and notified by the LCC Secretariat.
5. To ensure the health and safety of personnel and stakeholders involved during the conduct of field validation, observation of health and safety protocols and compliance with the minimum public health standards based on Inter-agency Task Force (IATF) guidelines and other relevant DepEd and LGU issuances shall be strictly followed.
6. The winning regional entries validated by the DepEd ROs shall be submitted to the LCC Secretariat on or before June 6, 2022. They shall be declared as the official regional NLA entries that will vie for the national-level awards. The regional NLA entries shall be composed of the following:
- a. One entry for the Outstanding Literacy Program Category; and
 - b. Five entries for the Outstanding Local Government Unit Category comprised of
 - i. Two entries from the sub-category of Highly Urbanized City,
 - ii. One entry from the sub-category of Independent Component/Component City,
 - iii. One entry from the sub-category of 1st to 3rd Class Municipality, and
 - iv. One entry from the sub-category of 4th to 6th Class Municipality.
7. Details of the timetable, as well as the guidelines on the submission and selection process, are contained in the enclosed guidelines.
8. The DepEd, through the LCC Secretariat, shall facilitate the downloading of support funds to select DepEd Regional Offices intended to be utilized in the implementation of activities pertinent to the 2022 NLA. Furthermore, implementing guidelines stipulating the procedures on funds release, utilization, reporting, and liquidation of NLA support funds shall be issued in a separate cover.
