Dr. Fetalvero,

Greetings!

The Securities and Exchange Commission – Cagayan de Oro Extension Office in the pursuit of its goals and mandate as the champion of investor protection continues to seek alternative platforms in educating the public about good and safe investments.

In line with this, the SEC-CDOEO would like to invite your good office as we conduct our “Investor Protection Webinar Drive” with the other partner government agencies. The Commission will provide the webinar platform via Zoom, Resource Speaker, and online certificates for the participants. We are inviting all your employees to join us with this endeavor. As soon as approved, we encourage the participants to register through this link (bit.ly/2VfYkZL) so we can assess their data and the number of attendees.

We are hoping for your kind consideration in this humble request to partner with your agency in coping up to end these investment scams.

Sincerely yours,
