Jose Rosales Ave, Butuan City, Agusan Del Norte

Dear Dr. Fetalvero:

Greetings!

The Philippine National Health Research System (PNHRS) in cooperation with the Philippine Council for Health Research and Development (PCHRD), will be conducting its 14th PNHRS Week Celebration this coming August 3-13, 2021 with the theme, "Health R&D in the New Normal: Moving towards Universal Health Care".

Prior to the main celebration, there will be satellite sessions hosted by the Regional Health R&D Consortia (RHRDC) in the country from August 3-6, 2021. This aims to provide an avenue for sharing innovative ideas and practices that can be replicated on other areas to help combat pandemic-related issues and concerns of the country.

For the Mindanao Cluster, the satellite session will be on August 6, 2021, 8:00-11:25 am, via Zoom and will be streamed via Facebook Live. This is anchored on the sub-theme, "Ensuring Good Governance and Accountability in the New Normal". Plenary topics will be discussed in line with the sub theme.

With this, we would like to invite you and interested researchers/personnel from your institution to join the event. Please register in advance using the link below to receive the joining details for the Mindanao satellite session.
