Dear Director Asuncion,

Healthy greetings!

To ensure effective implementation of Healthy Learning Institutions (HLI) Program in the region, the Department of Health Center for Health Development (CHD) Caraga will conduct a kumustahan session with the implementing members of the provincial/city health office, local school board and last mile elementary school heads to provide updates, discuss and evaluate current implementation, challenges, solutions, and action planning on the ground.

With this, we are respectfully requesting for your assistance in inviting the school heads of the recipient last mile elementary schools and selected School Health and Nutrition in the division mentioned below with the following details.

| Implementation Site                               | Target Dates                                            | Time and Venue                                                           |
